

List of Commonly Used Fixed Prepositions

Abide by

Meaning: To comply with or follow

Example: We must abide by the rules.

Absent from

Meaning: To be away from

Example: He was absent from school yesterday.

Abstain from

Meaning: To refrain from

Example: We must abstain from bad habits.

Accused of

Meaning: Charged with

Example: He was accused of theft.

Addicted to

Meaning: Dependent on

Example: She is addicted to coffee.

Afraid of

Meaning: Fearful of

Example: He is afraid of the dark.

Agree on

Meaning: To have the same opinion about

Example: We agreed on the plan.

Agree with

Meaning: To have the same opinion as

Example: I totally agree with you.

Agree to

Meaning: To consent to

Example: They agreed to the terms.

Apologize for

Meaning: To express regret

Example: She apologized for her mistake.

Believe in

Meaning: To have faith in

Example: I believe in hard work.

Capable of

Meaning: Having the ability to

Example: She is capable of great achievements.

Committed to

Meaning: Dedicated to

Example: He is committed to his goals.

Concerned about

Meaning: Worried about

Example: She is concerned about her grades.

Dependent on

Meaning: Relying on

Example: The project is dependent on funding.

Devoted to

Meaning: Loyal to

Example: She is devoted to her family.

Engaged in

Meaning: Involved in

Example: He is engaged in research work.

Excited about

Meaning: Enthusiastic about

Example: They are excited about their vacation.

Famous for

Meaning: Known for

Example: This place is famous for its beaches.

Interested in

Meaning: Having curiosity about

Example: She is interested in painting.

Proud of

Meaning: Feeling pride in

Example: He is proud of his achievements.

Responsible for

Meaning: Accountable for

Example: He is responsible for the team's success.

Similar to

Meaning: Resembling

Example: This design is similar to the old one.

Thankful for

Meaning: Grateful for

Example: I am thankful for your help.

Tired of

Meaning: Exhausted by or bored with

Example: She is tired of waiting.

Worried about

Meaning: Anxious about

Example: He is worried about the results.

Accustomed to

Meaning: Familiar with

Example: She is accustomed to the new routine.

Acquainted with

Meaning: Familiar with

Example: Are you acquainted with this area?

Agree upon

Meaning: To reach a decision

Example: They agreed upon the rules.

Angry at

Meaning: Upset with something (at things, events, or specific actions)

Example: He was angry at the traffic for his delay.

Angry with

Meaning: Upset with someone

Example: He is angry with his brother for breaking his phone.

Apologize to

Meaning: To express regret to someone

Example: He apologized to his teacher.

Apply for

Meaning: To make a request for

Example: She applied for a job.

Approve of

Meaning: To accept or agree

Example: I approve of your suggestion.

Ashamed of

Meaning: Feeling shame for

Example: He is ashamed of his behavior.

Aware of

Meaning: Conscious of

Example: Are you aware of the risks?

Blessed with

Meaning: Fortunate to have

Example: He is blessed with good health.

Capable of

Meaning: Having the ability to

Example: She is capable of managing a team.

Concentrate on

Meaning: To focus on

Example: She concentrated on her studies.

Confident of

Meaning: Sure about

Example: He is confident of his success.

Congratulate on

Meaning: To express good wishes for

Example: They congratulated her on her success.

Curious about

Meaning: Eager to know about

Example: He is curious about the new project.

Dedicated to

Meaning: Devoted to

Example: He is dedicated to his work.

Delighted with

Meaning: Pleased with

Example: She is delighted with her gift.

Dependent on

Meaning: Relying on

Example: This work is dependent on teamwork.

Disappointed with

Meaning: Unhappy with

Example: They are disappointed with the results.

Engaged to

Meaning: Promised in marriage

Example: She is engaged to a lawyer.

Familiar with

Meaning: Known to

Example: I am familiar with this topic.

Grateful to

Meaning: Thankful to someone

Example: I am grateful to my parents.

Hope for

Meaning: To wish for

Example: We hope for better days ahead.

Interested in

Meaning: Having curiosity about

Example: She is interested in learning French.

Jealous of

Meaning: Envious of

Example: He is jealous of his colleague's success.

Keen on

Meaning: Eager or enthusiastic about

Example: She is keen on joining the club.

Pleased with

Meaning: Happy with

Example: He is pleased with his progress.

Prepared for

Meaning: Ready for

Example: Are you prepared for the exam?

Proud of

Meaning: Feeling pride

Example: They are proud of their achievements.

Qualified for

Meaning: Eligible for

Example: She is qualified for the position.

Satisfied with

Meaning: Content with

Example: He is satisfied with the results.

Scared of

Meaning: Afraid of

Example: She is scared of spiders.

Sensitive to

Meaning: Easily affected by

Example: He is sensitive to criticism.

Similar to

Meaning: Resembling

Example: This method is similar to the old one.

Succeed in doing something

Meaning: To achieve success in

Example: She succeeded in completing the project.

Sure of

Meaning: Confident about

Example: Are you sure of the answer?

Thankful to

Meaning: Grateful to someone

Example: I am thankful to my mentor.

Upset about

Meaning: Disturbed by

Example: He is upset about the loss.

Used to

Meaning: Accustomed to

Example: I am used to waking up early.

Known for

Meaning: Famous for

Example: This city is known for its culture.

Ability to - The quality of being able to perform

Ex- I have the ability to memorize the all dates.

Access to - Act of approaching

Ex- She could not get the job because she didn't have access to political leaders.

Accompanied by - To go along with

Ex-I was accompanied by my friend to the hospital.

Accountable for - responsible

Ex- I am only accountable for my work.

Acquit of - To release

Ex- She was acquitted of all the charges.

Deprive of - to take something away from someone or something

Ex- They're depriving him of a chance to succeed.

Congratulate on - to express pleasure or praise for someone's success or good fortune

Ex- "I congratulated Jill on winning the award".

Deal in - to buy and sell something as a business

Ex- "He deals in rare books".

Deal with - To do something about a problem; To do something about a problem

Ex- He deals fairly with all his customers".

Engage in (something) - to take part in something

Ex- The two governments have agreed to engage in a dialogue to resolve the problem.

Familiar to something - something is easy to recognize or you know it well because you've seen, met, or heard it before

Ex- "The street was familiar to me."

Familiar with someone/something - having some knowledge about (something)

Ex- We are familiar with the situation.

Hinder from - to stop (someone) from (doing something)

Ex- Financial troubles hindered him from going on the trip.

Ignorant of - not having enough knowledge, understanding, or information about something

Ex- He was ignorant of the dangers of the drug."

Indifferent to - not thinking about or interested in someone or something

Ex- Why don't you vote - how can you be so indifferent (to what is going on)?

Involved in - to be part of something, to be included in something, or to actively participate in something

Ex- "She was involved in a lawsuit"

Injurious to - bad

Ex- Smoking is injurious to health.

Impose on/upon - to put restrictions on

Ex- The USA has imposed restrictions on Russia.

Refer to someone/something - to talk or write about someone or something, especially in only a few words

Ex- In her autobiography she occasionally refers to her unhappy schooldays.

Yield to (something) - to agree to do something that you do not want to do or should not do

Ex- It's very easy to yield to temptation and spend too much money.

