SSC CGL 12/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q1. Neither the students nor the teacher (1)/ were ready for the sudden fire drill, (2)/ leading to a moment of confusion (3)/ before everyone evacuated. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: The correlative conjunction Neither...nor follows the Rule of Proximity. The verb agrees with the noun nearest to it. Here, the nearest subject is the teacher (singular), so the verb must be was.

Rule: Neither...nor / Either...or / Not only...but also → Verb agrees with the nearest subject.

SSC CGL 12/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q2. The myriad challenges confronting modern urban planners (1)/, ranging from sustainable infrastructure to social equity, often demands (2)/ an interdisciplinary approach (3)/ to yield effective solutions. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: demands → demand

Explanation: The subject 'The myriad challenges' is plural. Hence, the verb must also be plural.

Rule: Plural subject → Plural verb.

SSC CGL 12/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q3. The manager, along with her entire team, (1)/ expects that the project will be completed (2)/ before the deadline, and they shall submits (3)/ the final report on Friday. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: submits → submit

Explanation: After the modal 'shall', the base form (V1) of the verb is used.

Rule: Modal Verb (shall, will, can, may, must, should, etc.) + V1.

SSC CGL 12/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q4. The committee's objectives included (1)/ increasing membership, improving communication channels, and (2)/ to foster a sense of community (3)/ among its diverse members. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: to foster → fostering

Explanation: Items in a series must have parallel structure.

Rule: Maintain the same grammatical form in a series.

SSC CGL 12/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q5. The unique challenges of the project, including its remote location (1)/ and the unpredictable weather patterns, (2)/ makes its successful completion (3)/ a testament to the team's resilience. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: makes → make

Explanation: The subject 'The unique challenges' is plural. Therefore, the verb should be make.

Rule: Plural subject → Plural verb.

SSC CGL 13/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q6. The venerable institution aims to both preserve ancient texts (1)/ and promoting critical scholarship (2)/ among its burgeoning community (3)/ of young researchers. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: promoting → promote

Explanation: After 'both', parallel structure is required: to preserve ... and (to) promote.

Rule: Both...and joins words or phrases of the same grammatical form.

SSC CGL 13/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q7. The profound impact of digital technology on societal norms (1)/, a phenomenon universally acknowledged by sociologists, (2)/ are increasingly becoming a topic (3)/ of interdisciplinary academic debate. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: are → is

Explanation: The subject is 'The profound impact' (singular). Hence, the singular verb 'is' should be used.

Rule: The main subject determines the verb, not the modifying phrase.

SSC CGL 13/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q8. She was confident that her plan would succeed, (1)/ for it was not only innovative (2)/ but also it was thoroughly tested (3)/ by an independent team. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: but also it was thoroughly tested → but also thoroughly tested

Explanation: The sentence violates parallelism. After not only...but also, the two parts should have the same grammatical structure.

Rule: Not only...but also requires parallel construction.

SSC CGL 13/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q9. What the ancient philosophers believed about the nature of reality (1)/ and the purpose of human existence (2)/ remain a subject of intense debate (3)/ among contemporary thinkers. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: remain → remains

Explanation: The subject is the noun clause 'What the ancient philosophers believed...', which functions as a singular subject. Hence, the singular verb 'remains' is required.

Rule: A noun clause acting as the subject takes a singular verb.

SSC CGL 13/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q10. The increase in the number of unresolved cases (1) / and the lack of clear guidelines from the authorities (2)/ has contributed significantly to the confusion (3)/ surrounding the recent procedural changes. (4)

Answer: (4)

Correction: has contributed → have contributed

Explanation: The compound subject 'The increase... and the lack...' is plural, so we need the plural verb 'have contributed'.

Rule: Compound subject joined by 'and' → Plural verb.

SSC CGL 13/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q11. The list of recommended candidates for various regional posts (1)/ were prepared in haste without proper background checks, (2)/ which resulted in several administrative complications (3)/ during the initial phase of deployment. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: The subject is 'The list' (singular). The phrase 'of recommended candidates' is only a modifier.

Rule: The verb agrees with the main subject, not the noun in the modifying phrase.

SSC CGL 14/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q12. The principal emphasized that it was not only a lack of funding for extracurricular activities (1)/ that disheartened students, but the inconsistent support from parents and faculty (2)/ which, despite being crucial for success, (3)/ contribute to a decline in overall participation rates. (4)

Answer: (4)

Correction: contribute → contributed

Explanation: The sentence reports a past fact after 'emphasized'. Parallel structure requires 'that disheartened students' and 'that contributed to a decline...'.

Rule: Maintain tense consistency in reported statements.

SSC CGL 14/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q13. The committee, which oversee multiple departments, (1)/ has been granted additional funds (2)/ to implement the new sustainability policies (3)/ across all regional offices. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: oversee → oversees

Explanation: The relative pronoun 'which' refers to 'committee' (singular).

Rule: The verb in a relative clause agrees with its antecedent.

SSC CGL 14/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q14. The emergence of new infectious variants (1)/ amid inconsistent global vaccination efforts (2)/ have reignited debates on public health preparedness (3)/ and international cooperation. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: have → has

Explanation: The subject 'The emergence' is singular. Ignore modifying phrases while identifying the subject.

Rule: Ignore modifying phrases while identifying the subject.

SSC CGL 14/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q15. That the experimental results contradict prior findings (1)/ and challenges established theories (2)/ suggests the need for further investigation (3)/ into the novel methodology. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: challenges → challenge

Explanation: The compound predicate should remain parallel: 'contradict' should balance 'challenge' — ...contradict prior findings and challenge established theories.

Rule: Maintain parallel verb forms joined by 'and'.

SSC CGL 14/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q16. She had barely finished writing her essay (1)/ then the power went out, (2)/ leaving her work unsaved (3)/ and her progress lost. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: then → when

Explanation: The correct correlative structure is: Hardly/Barely/Scarcely...when.

Rule: Hardly/Barely/Scarcely + when; No sooner + than.

SSC CGL 15/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q17. The professor postponed the discussion (1)/ until the research would be published (2)/ to maintain confidentiality (3)/ of the findings. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: would be published → was published

Explanation: After 'until', we generally do not use will/would to refer to future time.

Rule: After time conjunctions (when, until, before, after, as soon as), avoid will/would.

SSC CGL 15/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q18. Were she to have known about the danger (1)/ she might have taken (2)/ different precautions to ensure her safety (3)/ and avoid the unfortunate incident. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: Were she to have known → Had she known

Explanation: This sentence expresses an unreal past condition, so the correct inversion is Had + Subject + V3.

Rule: Had + Subject + V3 → Unreal past condition.

SSC CGL 15/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q19. Neither the students nor the teachers (1)/ were aware that the schedule (2)/ for the annual function (3)/ have been changed by the principal. (4)

Answer: (4)

Correction: have → has

Explanation: The subject of the reported clause is 'the schedule' (singular). Therefore, the present perfect passive should be 'has been changed'.

Rule: The verb agrees with the actual subject of its own clause.

SSC CGL 15/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q20. The new algorithm, designed to process vast amounts of data, (1)/ promises to revolutionise our approach to analytics, (2)/ but it also rises concerns (3)/ about data privacy and ethical implications. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: rises → raises

Explanation: Raise = to cause, bring up (transitive verb, उठाना); Rise = to go up (intransitive verb, उठना).

Rule: Raise + Object; Rise takes no object.

Q21. The consensus was, not that the data itself was flawed, but that its interpretation by the junior analysts (1)/ were overly optimistic (2)/ given the volatile market conditions (3)/ and the inherent uncertainties. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: The subject is 'its interpretation' (singular), not 'analysts'. Note: 'data' is itself plural, so the earlier clause should correctly read 'the data itself were flawed', but their interpretation by the junior analysts was overly optimistic.

Rule: The verb agrees with the main subject, not with the noun in the prepositional phrase.

Q22. The committee has postponed (1)/ the announcement until (2)/ further informations is received (3)/ from the regional offices. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: informations → information

Explanation: Information is an uncountable noun and never takes -s.

Rule: Uncountable nouns: information, advice, furniture, luggage, equipment, baggage, etc. always come in singular form.

Q23. Neither the scientists nor the research team (1)/ were willing to compromise (2)/ on the accuracy of the findings (3)/ despite external pressure. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: In Neither...nor, the verb agrees with the nearest subject. Nearest subject = 'the research team' (singular).

Rule: In case of 'Neither...nor'/'Either...or', the verb agrees with the nearest subject.

Q24. The central bank's decision not only aimed to curve inflation (1)/ but also intended to stimulate economic growth, (2)/ a dual objective that proved challenging (3)/ to balance effectively. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: curve → curb

Explanation: Curb = control, restrain (correct). Curve = bend (incorrect here).

Rule: Remember: Curb inflation, Curb corruption, Curb pollution.

SSC CGL 16/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q25. Hardly did the manager knew (1)/ that his decision would (2)/ trigger such a massive protest (3)/ among the employees. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: knew → know

Explanation: After 'did', always use the first form (V1) of the verb.

Rule: Did/Does/Do + V1.

SSC CGL 16/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q26. What we need right now (1)/ are a strong leader (2)/ who can unite the team (3)/ and restore confidence. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: are → is

Explanation: A noun clause beginning with 'What' usually takes a singular verb.

Rule: What + clause usually takes a singular verb.

SSC CGL 17/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q27. The new research facility (1)/ is equipped with advanced instruments (2)/ that allows scientists to conduct (3)/ complex molecular experiments. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: allows → allow

Explanation: The relative pronoun 'that' refers to 'advanced instruments' (plural).

Rule: A relative clause verb agrees with its antecedent.

SSC CGL 17/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q28. The fishermen caught many fishes (1)/ from the lake yesterday (2)/ and sold them in the market (3)/ at a good price. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: fishes → fish

Explanation: When referring to more than one fish of the same kind, the plural is 'fish'. 'Fishes' is used only when referring to different species of fish.

Rule: Fish = plural of fish (same species); Fishes = different species of fish.

SSC CGL 17/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q29. Seldom we realize (1)/ how fortunate we are (2)/ to have access to clean water (3)/ and healthy food. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: Seldom we realize → Seldom do we realize

Explanation: When a negative adverb (Seldom, Never, Rarely, Hardly, Little) comes at the beginning of a sentence, subject-auxiliary inversion is required.

Rule: Negative adverb at the beginning → Auxiliary + Subject + Verb.

SSC CGL 17/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q30. The committee is committed (1)/ for ensuring that all members (2)/ have an equal opportunity (3)/ to voice their opinions. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: for → to

Explanation: The correct collocation is 'committed to' + V-ing/Noun.

Rule: Committed to; Dedicated to; Accustomed to.

SSC CGL 17/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q31. It was not until she finished her degree (1)/ and gained some experience (2)/ did she feel confident enough (3)/ to start her own business. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: did she feel → that she felt

Explanation: The pattern 'It was not until...that...' is a cleft sentence. It does not require inversion. Do not mix 'Not until + clause, did + subject + V1' with 'It was not until...that + subject + verb'.

Rule: It was not until...that + subject + verb (no inversion).

SSC CGL 18/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q32. After years of hard work (1)/ he finally decided to call off from (2)/ his struggling business and start anew (3)/ in a different field. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: call off from → move on from / give up

Explanation: Call off means 'cancel' and is not used with 'from' in this context. The intended meaning is to leave or give up the business.

Rule: Call off = cancel; Give up = quit/leave.

SSC CGL 18/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q33. The museum, which located near the river, (1)/ attracts thousands of visitors (2)/ every year for its rare collection (3)/ of ancient manuscripts. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: which located → which is located

Explanation: 'Situated' and 'taken aback' come in the passive voice only. Here 'located' means 'situated'.

Rule: Use the passive voice: 'is located', not 'located'.

SSC CGL 18/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q34. The main actor, as well as the supporting cast, (1)/ were praised (2)/ for their outstanding performance (3)/ in the play. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: The verb agrees with the first subject when the conjunction is 'as well as'.

Rule: Subject 1 + as well as + Subject 2 → Verb agrees with Subject 1.

SSC CGL 18/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q35. The minister assured that (1)/ all possible measures (2)/ were being taken to address (3)/ the crisis effectively. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: assured → assured us/assured everyone (or 'said')

Explanation: Assure takes a person as its object. It is a transitive verb.

Rule: Assure + person + that-clause; Say + that-clause.

SSC CGL 18/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q36. He seldom if never (1)/ visits his family, (2)/ even though they live (3)/ in the same town. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: if → ever

Explanation: The correct idiomatic expression is 'seldom if ever', meaning very rarely.

Rule: Fixed idiom: Seldom if ever.

SSC CGL 18/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q37. The committee recommended that the proposal (1)/ is reviewed by an independent expert (2)/ to ensure impartiality (3)/ before final approval. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: is reviewed → be reviewed

Explanation: After verbs such as recommend, suggest, insist, demand, propose, use the mandative subjunctive mood: that + Subject + be + V3.

Rule: Recommend/Suggest/Insist/Demand + that + Subject + be + V3.

SSC CGL 19/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q38. He drives (1)/ very reckless (2)/ on the highway, ignoring (3)/ all traffic rules. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: reckless → recklessly

Explanation: The verb 'drives' should be modified by an adverb, not an adjective.

Rule: Verb is qualified by an adverb; adjective qualifies noun/pronoun.

SSC CGL 19/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q39. So profound was the impact (1)/ of the new policy that it not only changed recruitment standards (2)/ but also reduced with overall efficiency (3)/ across departments. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: reduced with → reduced

Explanation: The verb 'reduce' does not take the preposition 'with'.

Rule: Reduce something (not 'reduce with something').

SSC CGL 19/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q40. The committee, comprising (1)/ experts from various fields, (2)/ have submitted its report to the governing (3)/ body for review and approval. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: have → has

Explanation: The subject is 'The committee' (singular). The participial phrase 'comprising experts...' does not affect subject-verb agreement.

Rule: Collective noun (acting as one unit) → Singular verb.

SSC CGL 19/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q41. The number of participants (1)/ in the advanced workshop (2)/ were surprisingly low (3)/ given the extensive promotion. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: The subject is 'The number', which is singular.

Rule: 'The number of' + plural noun → singular verb; 'A number of' + plural noun → plural verb.

SSC CGL 19/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q42. She emphasized on (1)/ the need for (2)/ regular practice (3)/ to improve performance. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: emphasized on → emphasized

Explanation: 'Emphasize' does not take 'on' before its object.

Rule: Emphasize something; Lay emphasis on something.

SSC CGL 19/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q43. Neither of the applicants (1)/ have submitted (2)/ the required documents (3)/ to the office yet. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: have → has

Explanation: 'Neither of' + plural noun takes a singular verb.

Rule: Neither of; Either of; Each of; Every one of → Singular verb.

SSC CGL 20/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q44. The newly discovered species was (1)/ quite unique, possessing characteristics (2)/ that set it apart from (3)/ all its known relatives. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: quite unique → unique

Explanation: 'Unique' means one of a kind and is considered a non-gradable adjective in standard exam grammar. It should not be modified by quite, very, or more.

Rule: Avoid: very unique; quite unique; most unique.

SSC CGL 20/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q45. The committee insisted that (1)/ each member provides a written report (2)/ before the final presentation (3)/ scheduled next week. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: provides → provide

Explanation: After 'insist that', use the subjunctive mood: that + Subject + base verb.

Rule: After insist, recommend, suggest, demand, propose → that + Subject + base verb / be + V3.

SSC CGL 20/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q46. The director explained that (1)/ the report was delayed (2)/ because the data (3)/ was not yet collected. (4)

Answer: (4)

Correction: was not yet collected → had not yet been collected

Explanation: 'Data' is plural, so it takes 'have/had', not 'was'. 'Yet' usually occurs with the perfect tenses.

Rule: Data (plural) → have/had been + past participle.

SSC CGL 20/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q47. The company plans to hire (1)/ new group of interns (2)/ to assist with the upcoming (3)/ marketing campaign this summer. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: new group → a new group

Explanation: The singular countable noun 'group' requires the article 'a'.

Rule: A singular countable noun must have an article (a/an) or another determiner.

SSC CGL 21/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q48. That the expedition faced unforeseen challenges (1)/ in the treacherous mountain terrain (2)/ were evident from their delayed return (3)/ and exhausted appearance. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: The subject is the noun clause 'That the expedition faced unforeseen challenges', which is treated as a singular idea. Hence, singular verb 'was' should be used.

Rule: A noun clause acting as the subject takes a singular verb.

SSC CGL 21/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q49. The sudden influx of tourists, (1)/ attracted by the newly opened resort, (2)/ have caused significant strain (3)/ on the local infrastructure. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: have → has

Explanation: The subject is 'The sudden influx' (singular) of tourists; the participial phrase 'attracted by...' is only a modifier.

Rule: Ignore prepositional and participial phrases while identifying the subject.

SSC CGL 21/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q50. The new decorative pillows (1)/ perfectly compliment the colors (2)/ of the sofa and the curtains, (3)/ tying the whole room together. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: compliment → complement

Explanation: Complement = to complete or enhance something; Compliment = to praise someone. Here, the pillows enhance the colors of the sofa and curtains.

Rule: Complement (enhance) vs Compliment (praise).

SSC CGL 21/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q51. The research team concluded that (1)/ each participant must submit (2)/ their reports before (3)/ the deadline on Monday. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: their reports → his or her report

Explanation: 'Each participant' is singular. Therefore, the possessive adjective and the noun should also be singular.

Rule: Each, Every, Either, Neither → Singular noun, singular verb, and singular possessive adjective.

SSC CGL 21/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q52. The players in the national team (1)/ works tirelessly (2)/ to improve their performance (3)/ before every major tournament. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: works → work

Explanation: The subject 'The players' is plural.

Rule: Plural subject → Plural verb.

SSC CGL 22/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q53. The CEO, along with his senior advisors, (1)/ are traveling to the international conference (2)/ to announce the company's (3)/ latest technological breakthrough. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: are → is

Explanation: The phrase 'along with his senior advisors' does not affect the verb. The main subject is 'The CEO' (singular).

Rule: Along with / As well as / Together with → Verb agrees with the first subject.

SSC CGL 22/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q54. The strict rules of the library don't let students (1)/ to take more than two books (2)/ out at a time, which is often (3)/ inconvenient for researchers. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: to take → take

Explanation: After 'let', we use the bare infinitive (base verb) without 'to'.

Rule: Let + Object + base verb.

SSC CGL 22/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q55. My neighbour constantly complains for the noise coming from the children playing in the park.

- (a) coming from
- (b) in the park
- (c) My neighbor
- (d) complains for

Answer: complains for

Correction: complains for → complains about

Explanation: The correct expression is 'complain about something' / 'complain to someone'.

Rule: Complain about something; Complain to someone.

SSC CGL 22/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q56. The manager appreciated (1)/ not only her dedication (2)/ but also for her innovative ideas. (3)/ Everyone was motivated by her example. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: Remove 'for'

Explanation: After 'appreciated', both objects should be parallel.

Rule: Not only...but also requires parallel grammatical structure.

SSC CGL 23/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q57. He seldom if never agrees to attend public events without thorough preparation.

- (a) seldom
- (b) never
- (c) attend
- (d) without

Answer: never

Correction: never → ever

Explanation: The correct idiomatic expression is 'seldom if ever', meaning very rarely.

Rule: Fixed pair: Seldom if ever.

SSC CGL 23/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q58. They are planning to build (1)/ a research centre near the river (2)/ where will scientists conduct (3)/ environmental studies in the coming years. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: where will scientists conduct → where scientists will conduct

Explanation: After the relative adverb 'where', we use an assertive sentence, not an interrogative sentence.

Rule: A relative clause follows Subject + Verb, not Verb + Subject.

SSC CGL 23/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q59. A large number of equipments were delivered to the warehouse (1)/ last week (2)/ to support the upcoming production schedule (3)/ without any delay. (4)

Answer: (1)

Explanation: Equipment is an uncountable noun and never takes -s.

Rule: Uncountable nouns: equipment, furniture, luggage, information, advice.

SSC CGL 23/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q60. The cybersecurity team is proficient for detecting (1)/ vulnerabilities in legacy systems that often evade (2)/ conventional monitoring tools and protocols (3)/ during routine audits. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: proficient for → proficient in

Explanation: The correct preposition with 'proficient' is 'in'.

Rule: Proficient in; Skilled at/in; Good at.

SSC CGL 23/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q61. Had she not postponed the meeting several times, (1)/ the committee would have had a greater opportunity (2)/ to discussing the budget allocations in detail (3)/ before the quarterly report was finalized. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: to discussing → to discuss

Explanation: After 'opportunity', we use the infinitive (to + base verb), not a gerund.

Rule: Opportunity + to + base verb.

SSC CGL 24/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q62. She enjoys reading novels (1)/, listening to music (2)/ and to paint landscapes (3)/ during her free time. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: to paint → painting

Explanation: The sentence requires parallel structure.

Rule: Items in a series should have the same grammatical form.

SSC CGL 24/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q63. The ancient tree is famous for (1)/ it's beautiful, sprawling branches (2)/ which provide shade for the entire park (3)/ during the hot summer months. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: it's → its

Explanation: Its = possessive adjective; It's = it is/it has.

Rule: Its = possession; It's = It is/It has.

SSC CGL 24/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q64. The volunteers served sandwiches (1)/ to all the hungry children (2)/ at the shelter on paper plates (3)/ decorated with colorful patterns. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: Ambiguous modifier — should be: '...to all the hungry children at the shelter, on paper plates decorated with colorful patterns.'

Explanation: The phrase 'decorated with colorful patterns' incorrectly appears to modify 'children' or 'shelter'. It should clearly modify 'paper plates'.

Rule: Place modifiers next to the words they describe.

SSC CGL 24/09/2025 (Shift 3)

Q65. The volunteers, (1)/ while collecting supplies for the flood victims, (2)/ the storage facility was inspected (3)/ for safety compliance. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: the storage facility was inspected → inspected the storage facility

Explanation: The dangling clause needs an active-voice main verb whose subject is 'The volunteers'.

Rule: Subject + Verb (Active Voice), not a passive construction that leaves the subject dangling.

SSC CGL 25/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q66. She apologised (1)/ of the delay and (2)/ promised to submit (3)/ the report soon. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: of → for

Explanation: The correct expression is 'apologise for something'.

Rule: Apologise for something; Apologise to someone.

SSC CGL 25/09/2025 (Shift 1)

Q67. Hardly had the preliminary review been completed (1)/ when the auditors noticed (2)/ that several financial projections (3)/ was calculated using outdated parameters. (4)

Answer: (4)

Correction: was → were

Explanation: The subject is 'several financial projections' (plural), so the passive verb must also be plural.

Rule: Plural subject takes a plural verb, even in the passive voice.

SSC CGL 25/09/2025 (Shift 2)

Q68. If the guidelines is enforced strictly (1)/ every participating institution (2)/ will be required to update its database (3)/ before the annual review begins. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: is → are

Explanation: The subject 'guidelines' is plural, so the verb must also be plural.

Q214. She prevented me to enter the hall.

- (a) me to enter
- (b) the hall
- (c) She prevented
- (d) No error

Answer: me to enter

Correction: me to enter → me from entering

Explanation: After 'prevent', we use 'from' + V-ing, not 'to' + base verb.

Rule: Prevent + Object + from + V-ing.

SSC Stenographer 08/08/2025 (Shift 3)

Q215. The team were playing well.

- (a) No error
- (b) were playing
- (c) The team
- (d) well

Answer: were playing

Correction: were playing → was playing

Explanation: A collective noun acting as one unit takes a singular verb.

Rule: Collective noun (as one unit) → Singular Verb.

Q216. The thief was hung for his crimes.

- (a) hung
- (b) No error
- (c) The thief was
- (d) for his crimes

Answer: hung

Correction: hung → hanged

Explanation: For execution by rope, the correct past participle is 'hanged', not 'hung'.

Rule: Hanged = executed by hanging; Hung = suspended (picture, clothes, etc.).

SSC Stenographer 08/08/2025 (Shift 3)

Q217. The committee have given its decision.

- (a) have given
- (b) No error
- (c) its decision
- (d) The committee

Answer: have given

Correction: have given → has made

Explanation: The pronoun 'its' shows that 'committee' is treated as a single unit, so the verb should also be singular. Also, we say 'make a decision', not 'give a decision'.

Rule: Collective noun + its → Singular verb (has); use 'make a decision'.

Q218. The report lacks a clear justification (1)/ for the measures undertaken (2)/ and overlooks the impact (3)/ on a environment. (4)

Answer: (4)

Correction: a environment → the environment

Explanation: 'Atmosphere/environment/ecosystem' take the definite article 'the'.

Rule: Use 'the' before environment, atmosphere, ecosystem.

Q219. The report, which the internal auditor had insisted (1)/ should have been submitted before the board meeting, (2)/ were eventually uploaded (3)/ two hours after the deadline. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: were → was

Explanation: The subject 'The report' is singular, so the verb must also be singular, regardless of the intervening clause.

Rule: A singular subject takes a singular verb, regardless of any intervening clause.

Q220. If she be found guilty of any misconduct during her tenure, (1)/ the disciplinary committee reserves the right (2)/ to withhold her pending dues (3)/ or initiate further legal action. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: If she be found → If she is found

Explanation: In a simple real conditional (First Conditional), use 'If + Subject + is/are/am', not the archaic subjunctive 'be'.

Rule: First Conditional: If + Present Simple, ...will/can + base verb.

Q221. The manager asked the interns (1)/ to compile the data accurately and quick (2)/ for tomorrow's presentation (3)/ before the end of the day. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: quick → quickly

Explanation: The verb 'compile' is modified by two adverbs, 'accurately' and 'quickly'. The adjective 'quick' is incorrect and should be replaced with the adverb 'quickly'.

Rule: Use an adverb (not an adjective) to modify a verb.

SSC CPO TIER I 2025 09/12/2025 (Shift 2)

Q222. What the council could not anticipate (1)/ was that the regulatory changes, sudden as they seemed, (2)/ were in fact a culmination of several years (3)/ of there being dissatisfaction within the sector. (4)

Answer: (4)

Correction: of there being dissatisfaction → of dissatisfaction

Explanation: The phrase 'of there being dissatisfaction' is awkward and unidiomatic. After 'culmination of several years', the noun 'dissatisfaction' should be used directly.

Rule: After expressions like 'years of', use a noun directly rather than the construction 'there being + noun'.

Q223. The consultant suggested that the firm (1)/ discontinues the outdated product line (2)/ so as to focus more resources (3)/ on innovation. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: discontinues → discontinue

Explanation: After verbs like suggest, recommend, insist, propose, demand, the Present Subjunctive mood is used — the verb should be in its base form without -s.

Rule: Suggest/Recommend/Insist/Demand + that + Subject + Base Verb.

Q224. The economist's analysis (1)/ was replete with insights (2)/ yet lacked the adequate context (3)/ for policy formulation. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: the adequate context → adequate context

Explanation: The definite article 'the' is unnecessary before 'adequate context', since 'adequate' already qualifies the noun in a general sense.

Rule: Do not use 'the' before a noun when referring to it in a general sense.

Q225. In response to an alarming spike in fraudulent transactions, (1)/ the bank introduced mechanism (2)/ to verify customer identities using two-factor authentication, (3)/ biometric checks, and behavioural patterns. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: mechanism → a mechanism

Explanation: The singular countable noun 'mechanism' requires an article.

Rule: A singular countable noun must have an article (a/an) or another determiner.

Q226. Among all the diplomatic envoys stationed in the conflict zone, (1)/ she is undoubtedly more trusted and relied upon (2)/ by both factions of the civil war (3)/ than any other ambassador. (4)

Answer: (2)

Correction: more trusted → the most trusted

Explanation: After 'Among all', the comparison should be in the superlative degree, not the comparative.

Rule: Among all + plural noun → use the superlative degree.

Q227. Entire in my life (A) / one of the best gift (B) / I have received (C) / is the car (D).

- (a) one of the best gift (B)
- (b) Entire in my life (A)
- (c) I have received (C)
- (d) is the car (D)

Answer: one of the best gift (B)

Correction: one of the best gift → one of the best gifts

Explanation: After 'one of the + superlative adjective', the noun must be plural. Hence, 'gift' should be 'gifts'.

Rule: One of the + Superlative + Plural Noun.

Q228. Rahul is (A) / taller (B) / than any boy (C) / in his office (D).

- (a) than any boy (C)
- (b) in his office (D)
- (c) Rahul is (A)
- (d) taller (B)

Answer: than any boy (C)

Correction: than any boy → than any other boy

Explanation: Rahul is included in the group 'boys in his office'. Therefore, use 'any other boy' to exclude Rahul from the comparison.

Rule: Comparative + than any other + singular noun, when comparing a person with others in the same group.

- (a) form in life (C)
- (b) without a purpose (D)
- (c) God did not (A)
- (d) create any (B)

Answer: form in life (C)

Correction: form in life → form of life

Explanation: The phrase 'form in life' is incorrect. The correct expression is 'form of life'.

Rule: Fixed expression: form of life.

Q230. We look forward to meet (1)/ you at the orientation session (2)/ scheduled for next Tuesday (3)/ in the seminar hall. (4)

Answer: (1)

Correction: to meet → to meeting

Explanation: The expression 'look forward to' is followed by a noun, pronoun, or gerund (V-ing), not an infinitive.

Rule: Look forward to + Noun/Pronoun/Gerund (V-ing).

SSC CPO TIER I 2025 11/12/2025 (Shift 2)

Q231. She speaks more persuasively than she writes, (1)/ which, according to her critics, (2)/ makes her a better orator rather than (3)/ an accomplished communicator. (4)

Answer: (3)

Correction: rather than → than

Explanation: The expression 'better...than...' is the correct comparative structure. 'Rather than' is not needed after the comparative adjective 'better'.

Rule: Use 'better + than' for comparison.

Q232. Pushpa is (A) / knows all (B) / the facts about (C) / the incident (D).

- (a) knows all (B)
- (b) Pushpa is (A)
- (c) the facts about (C)
- (d) the incident (D)

Answer: knows all (B)

Correction: is knows all → knows all

Explanation: The sentence incorrectly uses 'is' and 'knows' together. A main verb does not take another finite verb with it unless it is in the -ing form. Simply use 'knows'.

Rule: A finite verb cannot be directly followed by another finite verb; remove the auxiliary 'is'.

SSC CPO TIER I 2025 12/12/2025 (Shift 2)

Q233. Milk products (A) / was provide protein (B) / for a nutritionally (C) / balanced diet to everyone (D).

- (a) was provide protein (B)
- (b) Milk products (A)
- (c) balanced diet to everyone (D)
- (d) for a nutritionally (C)

Answer: was provide protein (B)

Correction: was provide protein → provide protein

Explanation: Remove 'was' — 'Milk products provide' is sufficient and grammatically correct.

Rule: Do not combine 'was' with a base-form verb; use the plain present-tense verb.

Q234. The old man (A) / died for (B) / a heart attack (C) / today (D).

- (a) died for (B)
- (b) The old man (A)

- (c) a heart attack (C)
(d) today (D)

Answer: died for (B)

Correction: died for → died of/from

Explanation: The correct preposition with 'die' to indicate the cause of death is 'of' or 'from'.

Rule: Die off/from a disease/cause.

SSC CPO TIER I 2025 12/12/2025 (Shift 2)

Q235. It seems (A) / the I am the most (B) / beautiful plant (C) / in this forest (D).

- (a) the I am the most (B)
(b) It seems (A)
(c) in this forest (D)
(d) beautiful plant (C)

Answer: the I am the most (B)

Correction: the I am the most → that I am the Explanation: The segment 'the I am the most' is grammatically incorrect. After 'It seems', use a that-clause. Also, the superlative should be written as 'the most', two separate words, not 'themost'.

Rule: After 'It seems', use: It seems that + clause.

Q236. The company will invest more (A) six hundred crores (B) in the next five years to expand (C) its operations in Britain (D).

- (a) B
(b) C
(c) D
(d) A

Answer: A

Correction: more → more than

Explanation: The comparative 'more' must be followed by 'than' before a number or quantity.

Rule: Use 'more than' + number/quantity.

Q237. The whole family (A) / would burst into (B) / peals for laughter. (C) / No Error (D)

- (a) B
- (b) A
- (c) D
- (d) C

Answer: C

Correction: peals for laughter → peals of laughter

Explanation: The correct idiomatic expression is 'burst into peals of laughter', not 'peals for laughter'.

Rule: Burst into + peals/fits + of + laughter.

SSC CHSL TIER II 2025 10/04/2026 (Shift 1)

Q238. The vibrant colors (a) / of the Holi festival (b) / were dispersed on the air. (c) / No error. (d)

- (a) The vibrant colors
- (b) of the Holi festival
- (c) were dispersed on the air.
- (d) No error

Answer: were dispersed on the air.

Correction: on the air → in the air

Explanation: The preposition 'on' is incorrect. The correct expression is 'in the air', meaning something is spread or floating through the atmosphere.

Rule: Use 'in the air' for things that are floating, spread, or present in the atmosphere.
